Re: Formal Complaint of Unprofessional Conduct by Dr. Arrata
File number: CR 2019 – 001

Dear Dr. Arrata:

I am in receipt of your correspondence dated April 17, 2019.

I cannot accept the revisions you propose; however, I am prepared to resolve this complaint with you by way of an undertaking which will include the following terms:

1. You will have your practice permit suspended for a minimum of 1 month or until all the requirements herein are met, whichever is later;
2. You will pay a fine of $2,500 for acknowledgment of 3 counts of unprofessional conduct (2 counts of unprofessional conduct for providing PRP to two patients on December 18, 2018 and 1 count of unprofessional conduct for continuing to advertise PRP as a service in your clinic up to and including the date of this letter));
3. You will pay the costs of the CNDA to complete this investigation in the amount of $1,500;
4. You will complete the Athabasca U Philosophy 333 course (found here: <https://www.athabascau.ca/syllabi/phil/phil333.php>) at your own cost;
5. You will amend all advertising and marketing to remove any references to PRP;
6. You consent to publication of the terms of this undertaking with the CNDA;
7. You consent to the terms of this undertaking being used in any subsequent complaint and/or hearing;
8. You will not offer or provide PRP or work in a clinic that offers PRP without first receiving the written consent of the CNDA registrar and providing notice to the clinic owner/manager that you are prohibited from being involved in anything related to PRP; and,
9. Failure to comply with the terms of this undertaking will result in immediate cancellation of your practice permit.

You are entitled to seek legal advice before agreeing to the terms of this undertaking.

Yours truly,

Cherie Baruss
Complaints Director and Investigator for File Number 2019 – 001

I, Eric Arrata, have sought legal advice with respect to the terms of the above-referenced undertaking or have explicitly waived my right to legal advice and I agree to be bound by the terms of this undertaking. Failure to comply with the terms of the undertaking will be deemed unprofessional conduct and result in the immediate cancellation of my practice permit.
